DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 is indefinite because it is unclear how the "association" and "physical location" between the "first and second institutions" affect the structure of the claimed envelope or the advertising material.

Claim 10 is indefinite because it is vague as to whether applicant is claiming the envelope alone or the combination of the envelope and the "first and second institutions". For the purposes of examination, the claims will be considered as directed to the envelope alone.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 4,865,247 to Grabner.

Grabner discloses the claimed invention except for the outer surfaces of the envelope having the specific arrangement and content of advertising material set forth in the claims. It would have been obvious to person having ordinary skill in the art to provide the outer surfaces of the Grabner envelope with the advertising material of the claims, since it has been held that when the claimed printed matter is not functionally related to the substrate it will not distinguish the invention from the prior art in terms of patentability. The fact the content of the printed matter may render the device more convenient by providing an individual with a specific type of advertising material does not alter the functional relationship. Mere support by the substrate for the printed matter is not the kind of functional relationship necessary for patentability.

Regarding claims 9 and 10, the recitation "banking envelope" has not been given patentable weight because it has been held that a preamble is denied the effect of a limitation where the claim is drawn to a structure and the portion of the claim following the preamble is a self-contained description of the structure not depending for completeness upon the introductory clause.

5. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 290,179 to D' Oudorp and U.S. Patent No. 3,356,285 to Greason.

D' Oudorp discloses the claimed device except it is unclear if the gum on the flap is an adhesive that allows the envelope to be subsequently disassembled without damage to its parts. Greason discloses that it is known in the art to provide separated adhesive spots (14) on the flap of an analogous envelope. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the gum on the flap of D' Opdorp as separated adhesive spots, as taught by Greason in order to permit the envelope to be opened without tearing.

Regarding claims 9 and 10, the recitation "banking envelope" has not been given patentable weight because it has been held that a preamble is denied the effect of a limitation where the claim is drawn to a structure and the portion of the claim following the preamble is a self-contained description of the structure not depending for completeness upon the introductory clause.

6. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,400,954 to Kaye.

Kaye discloses the claimed invention except for one of the outer surfaces of the envelope having advertising material. It would have been obvious to person having ordinary skill in the art to provide one of the outer surfaces of the Kaye envelope with advertising material, since it has been held that when the claimed printed matter is not functionally related to the substrate it will not distinguish the invention from the prior art in terms of patentability. The fact the content of the printed matter may render the device more convenient by providing an individual with a specific type of advertising material does not alter the functional relationship. Mere support by the substrate for the printed matter is not the kind of functional relationship necessary for patentability.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1 and 6-8 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 9-11 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

10. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
